CAP may only transact business in those states in which it is registered or qualifies for an exemption or exclusion from registration requirements. CAP's website is limited to disseminating general information about its advisory services and access to additional investment-related information, publications, and links. Accordingly, the publication of CAP's website on the Internet should not be construed by any consumer and/or prospective client as CAP's solicitation to effect, or attempt to effect transactions in securities, or the rendering of personalized investment advice for compensation, over the Internet. Any subsequent, direct communication by CAP with a prospective client shall be conducted by a representative that is either registered or qualifies for an exemption or exclusion from registration in the state where the prospective client resides. For information about the registration status of CAP, please contact the SEC, FINRA, or the state securities regulators for those states in which CAP maintains a filing. A copy of CAP's current written ADV Part 2A disclosure statement discussing CAP's business operations, service, and fees is available from CAP upon written request.

Certain portions of CAP's website (i.e., blog, newsletters, articles, commentaries, etc.) may contain a discussion of, and/or provide access to, CAP's (and those of other investment and non-investment professionals) positions and/or recommendations of a specific prior date. Due to various factors, including changing market conditions, such discussion may no longer reflect current position(s) and/or recommendation(s). Moreover, no client or prospective client should assume that any such discussion serves as the receipt of, or a substitute for, personalized advice from CAP, or from any other investment professional. CAP is neither an attorney nor an accountant and no portion of the website content should be interpreted as legal, accounting or tax advice.
